THE PENITENTIARY REPORT.

From Albuquerque Journal.

That the report of the experts to Governor Hagerman on the financial condition of the New Mexico penitentiary as left by H. O. Bursum, should have come as a shock to the people of the Territory is not surprising. Mr. Bursum has held a high position before the people of New Mexico; he has been recognized as the leader of the Republican party, and although there have been rumors, frequent and persistent; there had been nothing to prepare the people for the true condition of affairs as revealed in this astonishing public document.

The people of New Mexico are face to face with an exhibition of rottenness and dishonesty happily without parallel in the history of the Territory. It is a condition so utterly bad that one is amazed that it could have existed for so long unknown; that a board of penitentiary commissioners, supposed to examine and audit the accounts of the prison, should have been able to pass it over; that it should not have forced its way out through the machinery of the Territorial government with which it was so closely connected. For six years this condition of affairs has existed, and it remained for Governor Hagerman to bring it to light, and lay it before the people.

It is good for the people of New Mexico that the Governor has done his duty, quietly, simply and without hesitation. The report has made it possible for the law to right to some extent the wrong which has been done to the people. The report has done more; it has made it plain to the people that so long as Governor Hagerman is governor of New Mexico, no such condition can exist again.

The editor of the Record was in the party of forty Odd Fellows who went to Carlsbad on the special train Sunday morning to attend the celebration of the laying of the corner stone of the new Temple to be erected by Eddy lodge No. 21. Grand Master Ogle headed the party and the band went along. A dozen or more members went on the regular train the evening before, and Carlsbad did herself proud in the entire proceeding. Having driven out to see the government work on the Avalon dam the Record man did not catch the evening train back, and will be unable to write the details today.

The Record has been a little slow in printing the penitentiary report, not because we were not intensely interested in getting it before the people of the Pecos Valley, but because there was too much of it for us to handle in the regular course of a day's work. The Albuquerque Journal is the only other daily paper in the Territory that has printed it in full. The Albuquerque Citizen, the Santa Fe New Mexican and the Las Vegas Optic, instead have been devoting their space to defending Mr. Bursum.

It is understood that there will be considerable opposition in the Republican county convention tonight to the endorsement of Governor Hagerman. Adherents of the old Bursum gang are offended at Hagerman for the stand he has taken in exposing corruption and dishonesty. It is well known that the local Republican organ has it in for Mr. Hagerman, and a merry time is expected in the Tom Thumb political pot.

The Santa Fe New Mexican states that in many counties of the Territory where delegates had already been elected to representative and council conventions, the old calls are being canceled and the delegates elected from the various counties under the old call being sent as delegates to the conventions of the new districts created by reapportionment.

The Territorial Republican committee having failed to endorse Governor Hagerman, the local Republican organization hardly knows what to say tonight in order to prove its loyalty to the g. o. p.

The bank deposits of Roswell have increased nearly two hundred thousand dollars in the past three months. The prohibition of gambling has not driven any money away from the town.

It might be a good idea for delegates to the Republican convention tonight to take along a copy of the Daily Record as a reminder of the
